CITY OF DARIEN

WATERFRONT PARK MULTI-USE TRAIL MASTERPLAN

WHEN:
APRIL 7TH
5PM - 7PM

WHERE:

DARIEN TRAILHEAD
CENTER

ADDRESS:
1ST STREET WEST
DARIEN, GEORGIA

In addition to the new plan, the program includes a short presentation by local historian Buddy Sullivan on the history of the Darien waterfront. There will also be displays by various coastal partners; including the innovative "Coastal Ark"; as well as refreshments and live entertainment.

The City developed the Master Plan using a Coastal Incentive Grant administered by the Georgia Department of Natural Resources. Its goals include protecting the environment ; providing local residents and visitor better access to the Cathead River; promoting eco-tourism; and showcasing Darien's history and the coastal marsh ecosystem.
